

The Medical Paralibrarian group met on Tuesday April 5th, 2005 at National Jewish Medical & Research Center. Seven people were in attendance. Lynda Lillwitz reminded us about two upcoming meetings in April: the CCML Annual Meeting on Wednesday April 20th at Exempla St. Joseph Hospital and the CAL Paralibrarian Spring Workshop on April 22nd at the Aurora Public Library.

Shandra Protzko, a librarian at National Jewish, talked to the group about how to find and evaluate information on Consumer Health on the internet.

Our next meeting in July will be hosted by Jim Honour. We will meet at Exempla St. Joseph Hospital.

Submitted by Carol Miller of National Jewish Medical & Research Center