

Our latest meeting was on Wednesday, January 17, 2007 from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. at Denison Memorial Library. Our guest speaker, Lisa Traditi, Department Head of the Education/Learning Resources Center at Denison, presented a session on “Creating Influence - Building Relationships the Easy Way.” She shared many important points on “Opportunities to Create Influence” through a network of relationships:

- Characteristics of Influential People
- IVS – Individual Value Statement – or 30 second Commercial
- Networking
- Action Plan for Creating Influence

The participants found the information very useful and hope to utilize Lisa’s points in future networking opportunities. The Co-Conveners for 2007 were announced - Debra Miller and Debra Taylor.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, April 12th at 11:30 a.m., at Platt College, 3100 Parker Rd, in Aurora. Ellie Vaughter, Librarian and CCML member, has arranged for Dr. Don Parsons, President of Public Health Association, to speak about Public Health Policy, and it's effect on Medical Information Specialists.

Sincerely,

Debra Miller
